

"AS A MAN SOW, SHALL HE REAP"

A TALE OF RETRIBUTION

WRITTEN BY ABDULLAH BIN OMAR

This is a work of fiction. Any names or characters, businesses or places, events or incidents, are fictitious. Any resemblance to actual persons, living or dead, or actual events is purely coincidental.

---

To my family and friends!

This page intentionally left blank

CHAPTER 1

Now

It's been two long years since they did me wrong, and I can't let it go. I want revenge! it's like the china rules for shop: you break it, you pay for it. I've been keeping an eye on them. I know every single thing they do. He doesn't know that I know everything and what I have been planning for him but soon he will see that the ones who helped him in destroying me will get what they deserved and I will save him for the end. You know what they say, leave the best for the last. Will said "Aaron, control your anger. You need to use it on the right time to burn them, just like the fire does and I think you should get home before he calls you."

CHAPTER 2

2 years back

ALEXANDER

It was a gorgeous morning filled with joy and hope, these days are my favorite days. The sun is shining and the wind is blowing calmly. The birds are chirping their happy songs as the sound of kids having little discussions arose in the atmosphere. I woke up when my alarm went off at 10 o'clock in the morning. "Alexander get up otherwise you will get late for university," my aunt downstairs yelled as she called me. I just had an hour before the class starts at 11 a.m. I then changed, met Aunt Jean, and prepared to leave the house. "When will you come back?" my aunt questioned. I said, "I know, I will bring some fruits when returning back to home," to her question. My favorite spot is my university, which is far from home. I got there, and the first thing I do when I go to university is contact Arthur. He is my close friend, whom I met when I initially started university. I called him to find out when he would come to university. He sometimes arrives at the university before I do. We are both really prompt. After speaking with him, I spoke with Blake, my second-best friend, who used to be extremely punctual and nerdy but is now never on time and doesn't take his studies seriously except for the ones he loves. We hurried to the lecture hall to start our first class as soon as Arthur arrived. Our sir is quite boring, but we have to listen to him because this is an important course for us. At 12.30 pm, after our lecture was over, Nick and Blake arrived. "Oh shit! we missed it," was the first thing that came out of their mouths. I never rely on lies like this one. We then had two more lectures before leaving at 5 o'clock. We are generally about to die at this point and hurried to any nearby cafe.

CHAPTER 3

2 years back

ALEXANDER

We had a big day today since the results were about to be disclosed. And in our group of four, the person with the highest SGP is always required to take the rest of us out to dinner at a nice restaurant. Arthur earned more than we did, so it was his treat. We made the decision to visit the upscale restaurant, Arcadian Cafe. After Nick had parked his car, we went inside the eatery. Being clumsy, I ran into a man who appeared to be in his early 30s. I apologized while smiling and walked over to our table. "Why do you collide with everyone?", three of them began to tease me. I laughed as I remarked, "I don't know why I am so clumsy." Anyhow, we all placed orders for the same dish. "It will take some time", the waiter said. So, I made the decision to sing

Nick a song. Eventually, as I sang it to make fun of him, we all started laughing. The man I had collided with was sitting across from us. He continued to observe us, but I chose to ignore him because we were talking and laughing aloud, which would have attracted anyone's attention.

CHAPTER 4

2 years back

KEVIN

Sam and I agreed to visit a cafe even though we were both fairly busy from business meetings. Sam informed me that a well-known cafe is close to our accommodation. I ran across a young lad who appeared innocent and humble as we got there. He apologized before going to his table. I kept getting sidetracked by their ruckus as I sat across from him at the table. The boy who I collided with was the loudest. He seemed cheerful, and one of his buddies called him Alexander. I remarked to Sam, "Alexander, what a powerful name". Sam said, "It is."

CHAPTER 5

2 years back

ALEXANDER

We got our first probability lecture the following day at university. In which sir divided into groups and instructed to do project of your own choosing. Therefore, the four of us decided to focus on how mental health affects the workplace. We also made the decision to focus on a select business where we could go and conduct a poll. I decided to go to a business that was close to our institution. I scheduled a meeting with the owner and went there to ask for his permission to conduct the survey. Anyway, I met him, and he gave me permission to proceed. I entered the office right away where several people were sitting in silence at their desks. I chose to pause them for a moment and said, "Hello! honorable men and women I'm Alexander, but you can call me Alex, and I'm here to provide you all a 5-minute break. I'm here to conduct a poll on how mental health affects the workplace. I'm going to hand you all a stack of papers. Filling it won't take too long. I gave the survey to them after this announcement. They were filling out the survey more quickly after I made it entertaining by playing a game with them because it was getting boring. I hastily returned to the university after gathering all the questionnaires, where I assembled them on an excel file.

CHAPTER 6

2 years back

KEVIN

In John's office, I saw him again. He was doing a survey of some type. I asked Sam to look into everything about Alexander when I phoned him. Upon returning to the hotel room. I kept thinking about that boy as I sat on the couch. He appeared so joyful, reminding me of a moment when I was likewise joyful. Happiness appears to have abandoned me now, though.

CHAPTER 7

2 years back

ALEXANDER

The department director instructed me to take care of a guest who will be in town to speak at an event as a guest. He said he will be visiting university the following week. My friends asked me, "Why do you want to become his bodyguard?" when I told them about the guest speaker. I replied that it was HOD's request, which I was unable to refuse.

CHAPTER 8

2 years back

ALEXANDER

On the day of the event the next week, I was prepared and seated in the auditorium to watch the boys and girls decorate it. It was eleven o'clock in the morning and I was awaiting the call of the guest speaker. In fact, I texted him two days ago to let him know that I would be helping him at the university. Finally, I received a call from him informing me that he would arrive in 15 minutes. I told the leader of the event to move quickly since he would soon arrive. I went to greet him at the entrance with the director. He was in a large car, and when he got out, he started to come towards us. He appeared quite dignified to me when I saw him wearing a royal blue coat. As he drew nearer, I realized something.

CHAPTER 9

2 years back

ALEXANDER

He was the same person with whom I collided in the restaurant, but he appears to have been forgotten. "Mr. Kevin, it's an honor to have you here today, Alexander will be assisting you until the event," the director said in greeting him. I led him into the meeting room and gave him my official introduction. He inquired about my coursework and university life. Being an extrovert, I began to speak before realizing that we were to be in the auditorium by this point. So, we went off. After the event, I prepared my belongings and prepared to leave with Arthur. At that point, the events lead called and instructed me to report to the conference room. I told Arthur, Blake, and Nick to wait in the canteen. Mr. Kevin, the director, and other staff members were enjoying tea in the conference room. "Is there anything I can do to help you with?" I questioned the director. "Mr. Kevin wants you to sit with us here," he said. I expressed my surprise and gratitude by saying, "It would be a privilege for me to be here, but I have personal commitment to look." Mr. Kevin said, "Fine, you may go, but just consider the way you helped me on the event. I owe you a token of my gratitude and I sincerely appreciate it. I thanked him and walked away. Now it was eight o'clock. I told my aunt that I have to go to bed early because I was so exhausted. When Kevin sent me a message, I was lying in bed. Which says thank you with a smiley face. I chose to ignore him and later decided to respond. In the meantime, Blake called me. Over the phone, he asked me about an assignment and asked me to assist him. While I was assisting him, he asked me whether I thought Kevin looked odd. I was unable to understand him. He cleared his throat and stated that "he had been looking at you the entire time. In a nutshell, he sees you whether you are coming in or going out. He will notice you if you are near the stage. There is a problem with him". I responded, "I was the only one he knew, so it's normal, and this was the first and last time we met. I mentioned to Blake that this was my second encounter with him. "How?" questioned Blake. He bumped into me at the Arcadian cafe, and that was how we first met. Laughingly, Blake remarked , "This world is really small."

---

CHAPTER 10

2 years back

KEVIN

Sam planned an event at his university using some contacts. I prepared myself and headed to his university. He was waiting for me at the entry, and I was fortunate that he helped me throughout the entire experience. I inquired about Alex after meeting Sam. He said “he lives with his aunt here. She considers him as his own son and his parents live somewhere else”. I later told him about our interaction from today. He recommended me to send Alex a text message as a reminder about the treat.

CHAPTER 11

Now

After arriving at home. "Aaron, let's do dinner together", Kevin said when he called. I told, "Kevin, I had a heavy lunch with Will, and I can't eat more right now". Kevin advised: "You should bring Will here sometime; I would be delighted to meet him. Although you frequently mention him, but you've never brought him here. I replied, "I will," and then I left for my room. Leo entered after knocking on the door. He appeared depressed when I said "hi" to him. I smiled as I questioned him, "Now, what happened?" "She left me," he said. I exclaimed, "Again!" as I began to chuckle. "Aaron, please don't laugh, I'm in love with her" he said. You fall in love every day, so neither you nor I need to worry, I remarked with a smile. He told me, "You have such a pretty smile. I sometimes have trouble telling if your smile is genuine or not". He heard me say, "It's always real with you. Anyway, I need to get to work. Would you please excuse me?" Leo replied: "Yeah, keep going. I just stopped by to see you. He went. William called me after a while and we talked about our strategy. "Tonight, is revenge eve!" Will exclaimed at the end of the call.

CHAPTER 12

2 years back

ALEXANDER

I had breakfast with my aunt the following morning and informed her that I would be late from university. As soon as I walked into the lecture hall, CR messaged that today's class was cancelled. None of my buddies were present at this time and won't be till noon. I was growing bored while I sat at the library. I thought about texting Nick to ask him to be at university early, but then I remembered I still hadn't responded to Kevin's message. I gave a quick welcome response. He texted me shortly after saying, "Such a busy student!". With three laughing emojis as my response, I stated, "No, that is not the case. I simply forgot". "What have you thought about the treat? In a few days, I'll be leaving this city" he replied. After reading that,

I called him. "Hi sir, we met yesterday for the event, why didn't you tell me about it?" he said as he picked up the phone. He laughed, "I didn't know until then that I will be owing you a treat. And after all this time, I finally have a friend". I grinned and retorted, "Now, if you've said that I'm your friend. It might appear impolite to refuse your treat. Quickly he said, "Great. I shall watch for your response. I happily said "sure" and hung up. I texted him that evening to let him know that we would meet the following Saturday at the Bravos Cafe at 7pm.

CHAPTER 13

2 years back

KEVIN

"Kevin, are you sure to do this?" Sam questioned me. "Sure, I am" I replied. "He is quite innocent and has a pure heart. Don't you think what I've decided will be good for us?". Sam said "It will be beneficial for us but what if?" "No buts, please", I interrupted. Anyway, we are having dinner tomorrow, and when I tell him about my plans, I know he won't oppose and if he did then I will do what I want.

CHAPTER 14

Now

"Where is Sam?" Kevin questioned. "He's been drinking, so I think he'll be late", Leo replied. "Good morning everyone, why are we having our breakfast here today? Is there something unique?" Sam finally joined in. I stated, "I've organized a party for Leo's birthday. The day after tomorrow is his birthday. That is why I have arranged for breakfast here, and Leo, this party is my gift to you". Leo exclaimed, "That's going to be fantastic after so many days we are going to party again. Thank you, Aaron." "Aaron, if there's anything you need, just let me know, I'll do it. " Kevin said. Sam has the responsibility of dropping me off at the university after breakfast before he goes to the park. He stopped at the petrol station along the road, and I had some time to add a few drugs to his bottle. In a moment he returned and dropped me. I called Will and instructed him to increase the number of drops in his drink at the bar today.

CHAPTER 15

2 years back

ALEXANDER

Today was a Saturday! I got up early since I needed to finish an assignment and a few other things before going to the restaurant. My friends have also promised to visit me at any time. I so completed my work quickly and provided some snacks for them. By the time they arrived at 1pm, I had lunch with them. When Nick inquired about my plans for the day, I was upfront in letting him know that I was going out to dinner. Following this, three of them inquired as to where I was going and with whom. I informed them that Mr. Kevin had invited me to join him for the dinner. They were shocked and asked me, "Why?" I told them, "He has no buddies in this place. He only knows me here, and in a few days he will go". I remarked laughingly,

"I never let go of any free treats". They grinned and went out at five o'clock. I quickly showered and changed into my casuals. When I saw aunt, I let her know that I would be a little late because I was going to a dinner. At 6:30, I waved her goodbye and walked away.

CHAPTER 16

2 years back

ALEXANDER

So, when I eventually arrived at the café, I saw him seated at a table. I approached and greeted him. "Please have a seat", he said. I sat across from him. I told him "You invited me here solely because I assisted you at the event...". "I always reciprocate favors, and I believe we shouldn't take anything for granted", he remarked before I could continue. "That day, suddenly my health got worse and in this mean time you helped me. But, how did you know what to do?", he further asked. I said him, "I live with my aunt, whenever she gets ill. I always look after her. Also, what I did was my responsibility not any favor " . "Let's talk about something else", he stated. Later the waiter asked my order. I asked him to send me an order of my all-time favorite meal, stuff chicken. Kevin ordered the same. I told him "you should change your order, you might not like it" after he placed the identical order for himself. He stated that he was new to the area and had no knowledge of the local cuisine. Anyway, he gave the order and inquired about community activities. He informed me that he would be departing in a few days. I asked him about his family. He revealed that his parents passed away years ago. Along with his younger brother and manager, he resides in a mansion. I grinned and enquired as to his purpose for being in this city. He explained that he had some unfinished business to attend to and that the work was now complete. When he inquired about my family, I replied that I live with my aunt and that my parents actually reside in another country, but that I had relocated here for personal reasons. After a while, the waiter arrived and started bringing the meals. "Let's eat, it looks yum to me" he remarked with joy. He asked me for dessert after we had finished our meal. I let him know that I was full. He insisted, after which he placed an order for molten lava with ice cream. He inquired about my plans and future studies. I assured him that as soon as I earn my degree, I would leave this city in search of better possibilities. He displayed amazed expressions. He questioned me, "What would you do if you had the chance right now to move to a different country with better opportunities?" I responded, "I won't leave from here until my degree gets completed,". He requested with a serious expression, "Can you please ignore your degree for this question" It sounded more like an order. I informed him that I will still oppose to it. While I'm willing to travel, I don't want to disrupt my life in the middle of it to go somewhere else just to take advantage of a few better opportunities. What he said after that surprised me.

CHAPTER 17

2 years back

KEVIN

"You must leave everything behind, including your family, studies, friends, and everything else. In a few days, I'll be departing with you. Your new ID and passport are prepared to use. You need to leave this life behind and begin a new one with us", I stated. "Are you out of your mind? You are wealthy, but that does not mean you can buy anyone you want.", he snapped at me. "This was the last time I saw you, and if you get in touch with me still, I'll sue you", he further added and left.

CHAPTER 18

2 years back

ALEXANDER

I got out of there as fast as I could. I'm not sure if what I said was enough, but at the time, I was at a loss for words. When I got home, I closed the doors and walked right to the room. Around 9.30 p.m. I dressed and then sat on my bed. I was shivering. So, I covered myself in a blanket. I blocked his number while continuing thinking on his last remarks. "You have to come with me". I awoke the following morning and prepared for the lecture. I gave my aunt a hug as I said goodbye. I couldn't tell her what occurred yesterday, but by giving her a hug, I can at least find some calm. I was asked what had happened, but I simply said, "Nothing," before walking away. I called Arthur when I got to university, but he didn't answer. I was concerned because it was 10 a.m. and he is normally punctual. To take class, I entered the lecture hall. I waited during the lecture, but neither Arthur, Blake, nor Nick showed up. I received a message saying "Unblock his number or you will regret it" from an unknown number. I didn't pay it any attention and went to the library to sit. I then got a message asking, "Don't you want to know where your friends are?" after a while. I locked the door after running into the bathroom in a panic. I called him after unblocking him. He answered my phone and wished me good morning. "Where are my friends?" I questioned him. "You would have to accept my offer or else", he said. "Shut up and know that if anything goes wrong, I won't leave you" I warned him. "There is a car at your university gate, within 5 minutes, hop in the car. Get ready for worse things if you take longer than that", he responded. and after that he hung up. Without wasting any minute, I rushed to the university gate and sat in the car.

CHAPTER 19

2 years back

ALEXANDER

He contacted me again after arriving at a work site and said, "Welcome Alex, we have been eagerly awaiting you. The guard will lead you to friends if you just follow him. When I followed the guards inside a chamber, he took me to an unlocked door. My friends were there when he finally unlocked the door. No one could understand my suffering right now. My heart felt like it might break. They had their hands tied and were blindfolded. As soon as I entered the room, I took off their blindfolds. I desperately attempted to help them, but the guard told me not to since he wouldn't let me speak to them otherwise. After giving Nick a hug and untying his knot, I whispered in his ear, "After I leave, untie yourself and others. You guys need to escape from here quickly to save yourselves". "We don't know who have done this to us", Arthur remarked. Blake shouted by saying "Why are you here? Run Alex and find someone who can help us". When the guard entered the room, he grabbed my hand and said, "Let's go". "I apologize for what is happening to you, I genuinely love you guys", I told them while crying.

CHAPTER 20

2 years back

ALEXANDER

The guard finally brought me over to Kevin. "Alex, why are you so sad? All of this is being done for the sake of your happiness. I'm going to make your life better. You shouldn't feel angry". I cried and questioned him, "Why are you torturing me like this? what did I do wrong to you? Leave all of us alone, please". "Alex, you won't understand me," he replied. A noise came from outside after a brief period of silence. I was relieved that three of them had managed to get away. After them, the guard ran. I pushed Kevin and sprinted away from him. I left that location without even turning around to look back. I hope the other three are secure. However, I realized they were being held hostages once more when I heard Nick plead and beg the guard to please leave them alone. When I reached the main street, I requested that the taxi driver drop me off at the closest police station. I arrived at the police station right away. I entered the senior officer's room right away and informed him that "my friends are in terrible danger. They've been being tortured by a man. Please take him into custody before he commits any crimes". While grinning at me and making it appear as though I wasn't there, he instructed me to leave. I begged him to assist me, but he made no move that could have been helpful. After wiping away my tears, I realized "Kevin has some strong connections here." When I stepped outside the police station, I recognized the vehicle I had used to move to the site of the construction. I approached the car silently and seated down. This is the worst feeling, I have ever felt. A feeling in which I am helpless. There is nothing I can do now. I was returned to the spot by the guard.

CHAPTER 21

2 years back

ALEXANDER

"We meet again", Kevin remarked. I felt completely broken inside. I appeared to be a walking, breathing corpse. I begged him to "please let them go. Wherever you desire, I'll come with you". "Alex, it was such a small thing," he responded. "If you had accepted my offer sooner, neither you nor them would have had to go through this horrible experience. Anyway, I have some wonderful news to share with you. It is currently 3:00 PM. The good news is that we must fly tonight. As soon as we get to the hotel room, I'll let your friends go. My guards are taking good care of them." I told him I wanted to see my friends one final time. "The guard will take you", he assured me. I entered after the security guard unlocked the door. I hugged them and told them "not to worry, I have talked to him he will leave you guys in a while". What did he ask of you?", Blake questioned "My life", I replied. I sobbed a lot and then left.

CHAPTER 22

2 years back

ALEXANDER

"Your new passport and new identity are ready, and from now on, your new name will be "Aaron," Kevin said as he drove me to his hotel. After hearing what he had to say, I entered the shower and sobbed as hard as I could. I thought about my family, what will they do after my disappearance. Will they be able to find me? and how will they handle this situation? Kevin yelled at me in a loud voice "hurry up otherwise we would be late". When we both sat in the car and drove to the airport, I was prepared. We settled into the business class after boarding. Someone called Kevin, and Kevin answered. I was unable to understand him since he spoke in hints, but I could tell he was referring to me because he said my name. After the call, Kevin said "I was talking to your friends. They wanted to know where you were. I then informed them that perhaps Alex had forgotten to inform you all that I would be departing today. We didn't meet after dinner and he isn't with me. Your friends are probably looking for you, in my opinion". As soon as he heard me crying, he side-hugged me and assured me that everything would be fine. But I have a feeling that nothing will turn out fine.

CHAPTER 23

2 years back

ALEXANDER

We finally arrived Texas. Kevin informed me that he had some business to do and that he had scheduled a taxi to take me to his place. Kevin urged me to get in the taxi as it arrived and gave the driver instructions on where to drop me off. The airport was an hour's drive from his house. I was thinking on how quickly my life had changed. I would have been with my friends and family today, leading a simple life if I hadn't been with Kevin on the event day, but he destroyed my life and my happiness, as well as my desire to live. Thus, I have decided to end my life. The driver was travelling at a regular high speed when we were on the highway. I inhaled deeply before applying the hand brake. And everything went in dark.

CHAPTER 24

After accident

ALEXANDER

My head hurt and felt very heavy as I opened my eyes. I attempted to sit down when I noticed a man reading a book on the sofa. He woke up when my bed started making noise, and upon seeing me, he grinned and dialed the doctor. "How are you?", the doctor asked me when he arrived. You have now awakened after three months of being in a coma. I told the doctor that my head hurt. "Lie down and get some rest," the doctor instructed me. Your vital signs will be checked by the nurses, and then you will soon be released. I questioned the doctor about seeing a man in this room. "I couldn't make out his face; who was he? "It was Kevin. He has been looking after you for three months with so much dedication", he affirmed.

CHAPTER 25

After accident

ALEXANDER

Kevin entered the room and stood next to me when the nurses left. He apologized to me while keeping his hand on my hair. "I shouldn't have left you there alone yourself with the taxi driver", he said. I questioned him regarding the driver. He added "the driver had suffered numerous severe injuries when we admitted him, but hopefully he has recovered". I told him "I didn't wanted anything negative happen to him". "It's okay, we paid for his losses. Don't be concerned about him. You close your eyes and relax." he remarked.

CHAPTER 26

After accident

ALEXANDER

I was released from the hospital a few days later. Kevin helped me get into the car, opened the door on my side, and helped me get comfortable. Everyone at home is impatiently waiting for us, according to Kevin. Leo, his younger brother, approached him after arriving at his residence and gave him a hug. They both laughed as he whispered something in his ear. "Welcome, Aaron. I hope everything is good now." Leo remarked as he approached me. "Let him come inside the house," Kevin urged Leo. As soon as I got inside, I told Kevin that I was hungry. Leo was instructed by him to request a nutritious dish from the chef. "Hello Aaron, nice to see you," spoke a man who approached from behind. "I'm Samuel Carter, Kevin's manager. You can address me as Sam". Kevin came over and hugged Sam. Kevin proceeded to his office, which was close to the kitchen, after asking him how business was going.

CHAPTER 27

After accident

ALEXANDER

Weeks went by, but I didn't talk to Kevin all that much; instead, I only contacted him when I had a particular need. He was upset by my behavior, and it was easy to see on his face. After my behavior, I believed he might send me back, but he didn't. Leo asked me why I wasn't joining them at the table when he came to my room today. He heard me say "my choice" in an impolite manner. "He seated himself next to me and told me, "I know your parents died in a car accident. Look Aaron, what happened with you was your fate, but you have to understand that this behavior of yours may get you into trouble". I said, "I want to trouble him so that he can send me back." He responded, "He'll never send you back. However, he will send you somewhere else from where you will be unable to return.

"Why is Kevin like that?" I questioned him. He answered "We belong to a separated family. Our mother passed away from cancer, and our father abandoned us years ago. She gave both of us to her step-sister before passing away. She adored me but had no fascination with Kevin. He used to be tortured by her, but he never complained. He stayed with us for almost five years before fleeing the house. He was 15 at the time. He afterwards met a businessman who assisted him in making money. I was 15 years old when he returned to take me with him. Aunt and I made a commitment that I would return. So, she let me go with him. We both invested a lot of effort to grow our company. I didn't notice my brother being happy during his entire journey. He decided to adopt orphans since we had a steady financial situation. He adopted orphans mostly of aged 14-16 because this was the age when my brother had to work hard for money and he didn't want any other teen to go through any difficulties as he passed. After adopting William, the first teenager. I realized that he is jealous of such boys who are happy, fearless, careless and enjoying their age. He once annoyed William. If he likes football, Kevin would tell William not to play football. William became depressed as these forms of harassment increased, and eventually he did what you are doing right now. He used to lock himself in the room and remain there for hours. William didn't want to stay here with Kevin because he understood the circle, despite Kevin telling him several times to do whatever makes him happy. Kevin instructed Sam to take William and give it to Mr. Smith after learning William's motivations. Kevin informed me that Smith was looking for some young boys to work with. But I asked Sam for Smith's phone number since I was concerned about William. I called Smith to inquire about William's condition. I knew something was wrong with William when I spoke to Smith. I was able to follow Smith's activities though, and I learned that Smith forced William into child prostitution.

---

I was able to get William back somehow, and after he recovered, I sent him to foster parents. Kevin adopted another teenager a few months later. He carried out the same actions as he had with William, except this time he sent him for work in another city. Four teenagers have been sent out to work by him so far. Therefore, try to understand that what Kevin did to William is similar to what our aunt did to Kevin. It's the same thing. Kevin is psychologically traumatized, and he irritated William to deal with his frustration. For this reason, Aaron, I'm asking you to be good to him, otherwise he will send you somewhere else". I thought to myself "Leo is unaware that I was brought here against my will, not because my parents passed away. But right now, I'm unable to tell him the truth. What if Kevin sends me somewhere else if this situation gets out of hand. I can't afford to move somewhere else. I must make an effort to return to my city".

CHAPTER 28

After accident

ALEXANDER

After hearing Leo, I said, "I'm not an orphan, and I'm not between the ages of 14 and 16. So why did he pick me?" "I don't know but technically you are an orphan now", he replied. I questioned him, "Why aren't you doing anything about Kevin? He is mentally ill and is not safe for anyone". He remarked, "I have tried a couple of times, but he is very good at playing with the law". "Why don't you stop him?" I questioned. "It's not that easy to stop him", he responded with a smirk. "listen to me Aaron, I feel that he is connected with you somehow and I don't think he would do anything that he has done with those boys. But the key thing is that you now reside here. Move through your past and forget it. If you have any questions or would like to discuss anything. I'm only a phone call away". After finishing, he left the room. Kevin ripped my life away from me, and Leo is telling me to move on. I am not kind enough to forget everything. I arrived before everyone else for dinner and sat down at the table. I was spotted by Sam and Leo, who were delighted to see me. As soon as Kevin saw me, he was happier than the others and instructed the cook to prepare a special dessert for everyone. After the meal, I got up, walked over to Kevin, and apologized for how I had behaved. I told him "I was ready to move on and begin a new, happy beginning with all of you". At this point, Kevin got up and gave me an emotional hug. After the desert, I returned to my room and sat at my desk, thinking that I must find a way to get back.

CHAPTER 29

After accident

ALEXANDER

Kevin encouraged me to re-join university the day after tomorrow. I was relieved that I wouldn't have to see him all day. Kevin requested Leo to drive me to the university for my admission. After many hours of hard work, I was finally accepted to a nearby university. After we returned home, the chef served us dinner. Kevin gave the cook instructions to bring me a glass of milk. Kevin advised me to drink it since it would speed up my recovery. After drinking, I went to my room. After experiencing some light dizziness, I fell asleep. The following morning when I awoke. I felt weak and my whole body ached. It felt as I was beaten up badly yesterday. When I took shower, I noticed that my body was red. I tried to remember what happened last night, but it was all in vain. As I was telling Leo about this, Kevin overheard our conversation and informed me that the doctor would be there soon to perform my check-up. The doctor checked me soon after he arrived. "It is a result of the negative effects of the medications you are taking for your recovery", he said to me. "How is it possible to experience side effects suddenly? Also, I can't remember what happened last night?" I replied. "Though I frequently take these medications" I added. "Aaron, there is nothing to worry about," he said. "Simple side effects like this exist. And as far as memory goes, all this has happened to you while you were asleep. That's why you don't remember. I'll ask Kevin to bring you some more medications to help you deal with these negative effects".

CHAPTER 30

After accident

KEVIN

Today, I overheard the conversation between Leo and Aaron. I quickly went to Aaron and told him “I will call a doctor for you “. Later, I told Sam “I don’t want anyone to check him. If any doctor does that, he will found out what happened to Aaron. And we can’t take any risk”. Sam replied, “Don’t worry, a friend of mine is an actor. I will tell him to pretend as a doctor”.

CHAPTER 31

After accident

ALEXANDER

I was accustomed to dealing with this fatigue every two weeks. I occasionally felt redness, but the most of the time I had body aches. The most petrifying feeling is the complete blankness in my mind regarding everything that happened while I was asleep until I awoke the next day. I've stopped taking the medications that I was prescribed after my injury for the past four months. The doctor claims that it is an allergy, but I sense something is wrong about it. It was that day once more, so I walked to the washbasin in the bathroom and turned on the water. As the water was rising rather than flowing to the drain pipe, I observed that something was trapped in the pipe. I was good at fixing things except my life. I removed the outlet and attempted to remove the object that was caught in the pipe. It was a paper wrapped in plastic when I took it out. I went over the letter. It begins, "I'm Alexander, and I'm writing this to let you know that this is you writing it, and it's related to your forgetting of those hours between your sleep and the next morning. I've drank the glass of milk, and right now I feeling dizzy and drunk. I'm not certain if you'll be able to find this or not. However, if you do find it, attempt to get rid of the milk because..." The water wiped away the rest of it, and I was unable to figure out the reason. Accordingly, I was aware of the cause but didn't remember it. But now that I know what needs to be done, I must proceed with caution.

CHAPTER 32

After accident

ALEXANDER

Today, I believe, was that night again. I left to my room after dinner, and Sam showed up with a glass of milk. "Aaron, you forgot to drink the glass of milk today", he said. He handed it to me and further said, "Come on drink it, after that you have to sleep. It's already 10pm now". He left after receiving a call from someone. In the meanwhile, I collected a little of it and put it in a little jar. I was going to throw away the remaining milk, when Sam returned. Why haven't you drunk it, Aaron? he inquired. "complete it; I'm standing here". I had no choice but to drink it. I finished the glass, and I hurried to the toilet to try to throw up the whole milk. I felt dizzy as I got into bed. "This was the last chance, and I've missed this one too. I must now wait for the next two weeks." I said to myself. After a while, I was fast asleep.

CHAPTER 33

After accident

ALEXANDER

I was sleeping when I sensed Kevin and Sam enter my room one hour later. I was relieved that the milk hadn't had an impact on me, but now I must follow their instructions or they will realize that I am in all my senses. Sam approached me and told me to get up. They brought me to the car as soon I woke up. I pretended to be dizzy. Sam answered a phone while we were on the road and began to say, "I will be there in a minute. He's here with me". I was concerned about whom he was informing about my whereabouts. Anyway, we arrived at that place. They took me to an apartment. The man opened the door for us. Sam and Kevin followed him as he led me to his bedroom. "He looks fresh," the man remarked. Kevin instructed him, saying, "We gave him drugs; do whatever you want with him, but be gentle". I was left behind as they all left with the man. Sam said, "I will return to take him after three hours." I realized I was being forced into prostitution after every two weeks. They gave me drugs so I wouldn't remember what happened to me. That is why, I face body aches. After a time, the man entered with a glass of liquor, forced me to drink it, and approached me. He hold my hands and pushed me on his bed. He was forcing himself on me. I tried to stop him, but I was unable to. His nails sank into me, and I could feel it. He bit me on the back as well. I wanted to yell, but I was unable to, maybe it was due to the alcohol he forced me to have. In any case, I had to deal with it now. No options left. When he tried to get into me, I closed my eyes with tears rolling down.

CHAPTER 34

After accident

ALEXANDER

Later, Sam took me home and carried me to bed. I was awake and went for shower. I was feeling dead from inside. It seemed as someone has pulled up the sword into my heart. I am hating myself. I want to kill myself. I don't want to feel my existence. I don't want to live this life, where I am being sold to someone every now and then. I have been sexually assaulted multiple times and I was unaware of it. Someone, has rightly said "For your peace of mind, do not try to understand everything". After the shower, I went to university. I stayed there for a while and went to the the bridge. In the past, I attempted to end my life, but I survived. Part of me wished I hadn't, as it would have meant escaping all the struggles I am currently going through. However, here I am again, and feeling like no one can save me this time. As I uttered these words, I found myself on the brink of jumping from the bridge. I thought to myself “He destroyed me and, in the end, I am the one who is suffering. Although it should be him who needs to suffer”.

CHAPTER 35

After accident

ALEXANDER

I returned to the house and entered my room. Already it was getting dark. Kevin had not only ruined my life but also the lives of others, and I was furious with him. And at last, after gathering my courage, I made up my mind to seek revenge on him and Sam. They must receive what they were due. I was going to make a wrong choice because I was damaged emotionally. But, now I am back in my senses. My period of suffering is now over, and their fall into ruin has begun. God made me go through tremendous pain! It's time for them to experience my suffering.

CHAPTER 36

After accident

ALEXANDER

I overheard Kevin talking, and he said that they would take me for their filthy trade after a week, which meant I only had a week. I'm not sure if he was speaking to Leo or Sam. Sam is completely knowledgeable of Kevin, but I am unsure of Leo, therefore I need to find out today whether or not he is aware of Kevin's illicit work. I had a strategy in my head to find out.

CHAPTER 37

After accident

ALEXANDER

When Sam offered me a glass of milk to sip the last time. I took a sample of it and put it in the jar. Now that it was after nine o'clock, I put that sample in Leo's drink and went to his room. He appeared calm when I knocked and went into his room. I asked, "Leo? We haven't had our lengthy discussion in a very long time. Leo said, "Sorry, I was preoccupied with a few things. Please sit." I handed Leo a drink and added, "I made it for you." He inquired about my university experience. I could tell he was uneasy and eventually he fell asleep on the couch. Upon waking him a while later, I asked, "Do you know Kevin is involved in selling young boys?" He asked "What the hell are you talking about? my brother is a nice man. He can never sink to such a low". I could tell that he was being honest. I opened his laptop in an effort to find something helpful that would help me in getting my revenge. It had a password to protect it. "What is the laptop password", I questioned Leo? When he responded, I was able to access his laptop. I looked through every folder, but nothing was helpful to me. I looked through his emails but found nothing. On his laptop, he had an e-diary. I opened it and looked through it. I discovered William's name along with an address and a phone number. I recalled that William was the first orphan to be forced into child prostitution. As I carried Leo to his bed, I turned off his laptop. I was relieved to learn that Leo is not involved in his illicit activities.

CHAPTER 38

After accident

ALEXANDER

I visited at William's place of staying two days later. When I knocked on the door, a young adult of my age opened it and greeted me. Who do you hope to meet? I said the name "William". "Yes, I'm William," he replied. I introduced myself to him as Aaron from Kevin's house. I stopped him from closing the door in my face just as he was going to. I informed him, "I am aware of what happened with you." He came to stop and growled, "So what? if you are aware of what happened with me. I told him, "I just need a few minutes to talk to you, and then it's up to you." He opened the door for me. I told him everything about me, including how Kevin tricked me. I concluded by saying, "I want to take revenge; I have suffered extremely more than I am capable of, and I need your help in doing this". "You should leave right away as my foster parents are about to show up", he added. After exchanging numbers, he assured to get in touch with me.

CHAPTER 39

After accident

ALEXANDER

It was that night again today. I received a call from William. He said, "Sorry, I take time to make decisions and after continuously thinking about it. I have come to a point that I will help you with your revenge. By doing this may be the fire in me might get cold as well". He inquired about my plan. I informed him that he needs to relocate close by. "I don't have much money to move", he stated. "You don't need to worry about money", I assured him before hanging up. Sam brought me a glass of juice tonight after dinner. "No milk today?" I chuckled as I questioned him. "I suppose your bones are strong enough now", he grinned and handed me the drink. After drinking it, I hurried to the toilet to puke it up. An hour later, they took me to their new investor's room and went out with that man. I had enough time to put a capsule in his wine to make him unconscious and returned to the room where they had left me. The man entered with a bottle of wine in his hand. He took a sip and instructed me to follow likewise. Although he was forcing me, I tried to resist but was unable to. "Oh God, please spare me from his lust", I prayed to myself. He was still in his senses when I soon fell asleep. When I awoke after over three hours, I discovered that he was also unconscious. When I noticed his wallet on the table, I felt eased. I pulled money out of it so that I could make it easier for William to stay close to me. I immediately went to the bed after hearing the doorbell ring and pretended to be unconscious. I heard someone opening the door as the man remained asleep. Sam entered and said to himself, "Aaron starts are aligned today". I heard him say that, and then he led me to the car and drove home.

CHAPTER 40

After accident

ALEXANDER

After a few days, I went to meet William at his new place. He inquired about the plan. I said, "Sam frequently visits a pub. He needs to become addicted to alcohol, so I want you to work there. In addition, you need to work in a hospital to develop closer relationships because we need access to specific medications that are unavailable from pharmacies. I wish I could help, but Sam and Kevin have their eyes on me. I couldn't possibly do it. "On it," he retorted.

CHAPTER 41

Now

ALEXANDER

After my lecture at the university today, I was going to the canteen. When "Alexander" was yelled to me from behind. When I heard it, I froze. I looked behind and saw a student. I muttered, "Sorry? Aaron, not Alexander". "I know" he approached me and said that. "But you seem like someone I know who is no longer alive". I could tell he was talking about me since his face looked so familiar to me, but I couldn't remember it. I remarked, "That sounds interesting. What happened to him?" "He was burned to death. I remember that this news was broadcasted on every channel. When his friends were questioned, they claimed that they had been kidnapped by someone who later set them free and later that day, they discovered a burned body that was impossible to identify, but thanks to various forensic procedures, they were able to identify him as Alexander". When I heard this, my inner flame was reignited. I was burning like hell. He responded "I am Andrew" when I questioned him about his name. I quickly recognized him; he was a college friend of mine. He was running late, so he said goodbye and I headed home. I thought to myself how did Kevin managed to do all this. Around midnight, Sam came and went to his room. He was excessively drunk, which made my job easier. I entered his room covertly and sat on his couch in the dark. He sat on his bed after returning from the bathroom. I yelled "Sam" louder, and he frightenedly inquired, "Who?" I said, "It's me, Alexander!" as I turned on the nearby lamp. "Aaron, don't play with me, I know it's you", he said as he got out of bed. I said, "Aaron lives here wholeheartedly, but Alexander was unwilling to come here. You brought him here, after all. Why did you do this to me?" "It wasn't me; it was Kevin," he corrected and further added, "I was merely carrying out his instructions". "But you were included in this heinous crime, weren't you? Also tell me, what was right about what you did?" I argued. Sam hurriedly left the room and went to check on me in my room, but there was Will asleep under a blanket. He therefore believed Will to be me and went back to his room, locking the door. I went to my room and informed Will that he needed to go before anyone sees him.

---

CHAPTER 42

Now

SAMUEL

I felt dizzy when I woke up the following morning and thought about last night. I got ready nevertheless and headed to the breakfast table. Kevin then asked me to meet him on the lawn. He advised me, "You've recently started drinking more frequently; try to control your addiction," as I joined him. "You will suffer a horrible loss if you don't do it, and I might not be able to support you then either" he added. "Yeah, I know, I'm trying," I replied. "I wanted to ask you a question, Kevin?". The request to "go on" was said by Kevin. "It's been two years; do you still think what we did was a good idea?" I questioned him. "Sam, this is the last time I'm telling you to forget what had happened, and I hope you have understood it. It's been a year since we have stopped sending him to sex buyers. Now leave, Aaron will be waiting for you to drop him to the university" he said. I made a stop at the petrol station on the way and informed Aaron that I would be returning shortly. I went to the store and purchased a newspaper. I drank some of the water from the bottle after returning to the car since I was thirsty. I suddenly experienced a sudden dizziness and blurred vision. He said, "Samuel Carter, you have to pay for your misdeeds". I shouted, "No". "Sam, are you okay?" Aaron caressed my shoulder as I became frightened once more. When I realized I was imagining, I said to Aaron, "I'm fine." I then dropped him off at the university and headed straight to work.

CHAPTER 43

Now

ALEXANDER

I went to Will's house after I left from university. We continued to discuss our plan. I told him that tomorrow at Leo's birthday masquerade party, Sam should be thoroughly scared by both of us. And the rest, he will do on its own. That will be the end of him.

CHAPTER 44

Now

SAMUEL

I found it difficult to concentrate at work because I kept thinking about Alexander's warning. I drank from my bottle as I felt thirsty. I had a sleepy feeling. So, after having a nightmare, I immediately woke up from my sleep. I saw Alexander tried to kill me in the dream. I looked around my room but couldn't find any alcohol. I then went to the pub. I requested a glass of wine from the barman. I stayed there for three to four hours before heading straight home. I went to my room when it was almost midnight, changed my clothes in the bathroom and returned to bed. As, I was falling asleep, I sensed presence. "Sam, this is your final night here because I'm going to kill you tomorrow", Alexander said to me and this time he was very angry.

"Prepare yourself for my poetic justice" he added. Then I said to myself, "It's all in my mind," and I closed my eyes. He disappeared.

CHAPTER 45

Now

ALEXANDER

Sam didn't come up for breakfast this morning. I told the cook to bring him food to his room. I slipped the drug into his juice covertly. Prior to the party starting that evening, I needed to make sure he didn't leave the house today, so I went to Kevin. I told him, "Kevin, I want you and Sam to take a break from your work today because it's a big day for Leo." "I agree with you, Aaron," he said. "Anyway, are all the plans in place?" he asked. I replied "yes" and went to my room. "The celebration will begin at 6 o'clock and you must arrive by 8 o'clock", I told Will over the phone.

CHAPTER 46

Now

SAMUEL

As I was running late for breakfast this morning, I had it in my room. I wanted to visit the hospital because I wasn't feeling well and experiencing these imaginations. These delusions are driving me insane. "Sam, today is Leo's birthday," Kevin said as he entered my room. "We therefore won't be leaving for work today" he further added. I informed him that I had to leave. He enquired, "Where?" I remarked, "I can't tell you." Kevin quietly questioned, "Are you alright? Do you have anything you would want to share with me?" "Kevin, I've been working with you for more than five years, now that we know one another better, we are like brothers. I've told you everything, but over the past three days, I've been seeing Alexander scaring the hell out of me while warning me about my life. "I have no control over my behavior", I told him. Kevin informed me, "This is because of your alcohol addiction and don't be guilty for Aaron. What we did was our business and businesses are never right or wrong. However, we will look into your issue tomorrow. We are unable to go today. Just put up with it today".

CHAPTER 47

Now

ALEXANDER

At the party, Leo approached me and inquired, "Aaron, how did you know that I liked masquerade party?" I chuckled as I told him, "I know everything. Go enjoy the party now. Will called at eight o'clock to tell me to approach the parking lot. When I stepped outside, he was in his car. As he didn't come out, I asked him, "What happened?" after asking him to come outside. He sadly said, "This is the same house that stole my innocence few years back". I told him, "William, I understand what you went through when you were 14 years old. Keep in mind that you have this chance to hold them accountable. Now, it's up to you if you choose to face it or avoid it". He called out to me from behind as I was walking towards the house,

"Wait, I'm coming, this revenge is incomplete without me."

After that, Kevin and I went to the house together. I introduced Will to Kevin. "So, your Will", Kevin said with a smile. "I'm pleased we finally got to meet. Please take off your mask. so that I may see you. I need to find out who this young man is who has known Kevin for such a long time", he added. I hadn't expected Kevin to act in this way; if he saw Will's face, he might recognize him, and there was a chance our plan today might not succeed. Behind William's mask, I could sense his anxiety. Leo yelled, "Come here, Kev," from a distance. "Let the boys have fun", he further added.

CHAPTER 48

Now

ALEXANDER

We somehow left from there. I was asked by William, "Where is Sam?" I informed him that he would arrive soon. We observed him emerge from his room shortly after that. He was feeling uneasy, that much was obvious. He made our job easier. Leo was invited to the table when Kevin gathered everyone. When Leo showed up, I was standing next to Kevin. After blowing the candles, he made an emotional speech. He then cut the cake and made it distribute to everyone. The music was kept loud while the lights in the house were dimmed. In the dim light, I approached Sam and muttered in his ear, "Hi, Samuel. Long time no see". As I vanished into the darkness, I noticed Sam frightened.

CHAPTER 49

Now

SAMUEL

"Hello, Sam. Long time no see", came from somewhere close to a pillar. I, however, couldn't see him. I went to the barman when I felt terrified and asked him to make me a drink. After consuming it, I observed Leo and his girlfriend dancing on the ground. I wished I could be as joyful as he appeared to be. When I entered my room, Alexander was there, laughing uncontrollably at me. I growled at him, "Why are you laughing?" "I pity your rage, you can't even kill me", he said with a smirk. In a panic, I left my room and hurried to the party. I stayed there a while with Kevin. He encouraged me to go and have fun with everyone. When I entered the dance floor, I overheard Alexander exclaim in a light voice, "You can't kill me!" "I can kill you, Alexander," I continually told myself. I saw Alexander cheering me with a drink at the bar. I pulled out my revolver and yelled, "I can kill you," and as I fired, someone pulled my hand up. I soon realized that it was Aaron and not my imagination. I overheard someone making a police call. Kevin and Leo rushed to Aaron for assistance. Kevin approached me, slapped me in the face, and then snatched my gun. I was later detained by the police on suspicion of trying to murder Aaron.

CHAPTER 50

Now

ALEXANDER

Kevin and Leo followed Sam after the police had taken him into custody. As I entered my room, I ordered Will to return home. Before leaving, Will told "Kevin, saw my face". I quickly asked, "Did he recognize you?" "I don't think so", Will replied. "I hope so", I remarked. Kevin and Leo called me down an hour later. Kevin felt hopeless as I got downstairs. For me, it was the happiest moment ever. He needs to understand what it feels like when a loved one leaves. "Kevin, are you, all right? Would you like some water?" I asked him. "Aaron, Sam is charged with trying to kill you," Leo informed me. "Sam is experiencing hallucinations", Kevin said. "He wasn't intending to do it. He informed me of his illness when we first met this morning, but I chose to disregard him. I had no idea that my lack of understanding had brought us to this point. He began having hallucinations because of his addiction, in which he believed Aaron was attempting to hurt him" he added. I questioned Kevin, "Did you tell the police about his condition?" while acting astonished to hear that. "Yes, the police said that a mental health professional will arrive tomorrow for his evaluation", Kevin responded. Kevin told us to go to bed and to wake up at ten in the morning. We must visit the police station tomorrow.

CHAPTER 51

Now

ALEXANDER

When we arrived to the police station the following morning, a female police officer informed us "Sam had not been diagnosed with any mental condition based on their assessment. Alcohol abuse was the cause of what happened. Sam will be brought up for his hearing soon because this is a straightforward case". I could sense Kevin's internal brokenness. Leo questioned, "For how many years will he be sentenced?" "Minimum of 7 years," she remarked, "but there are many factors to look that might increase the years or perhaps decrease it." When Kevin and Leo went to see Sam, I waited outside.

CHAPTER 52

Now

ALEXANDER

Sam received a 6-year sentence after a few weeks. I went to visit him in jail. I was instructed to wait for Sam in the room after they had brought Sam there. Sam responded inanely, "I am enjoying," when I asked him "how life is going?" "Do you want to know how you ended up here?" I questioned. He turned to face me. I informed him, "I found out a year ago that you both used me for sex trade and several times made me go through sexual abuse. Also, one more thing you never had hallucinations. It was all true; I was the one who constantly frightened you. I added a substance called lysergic acid diethylamide to your drink, which caused your dopamine levels to rise, increasing your need for alcohol. This, in turn, disrupted your brain's receptors and gave you the impression that you were hallucinating. You may recall that Kevin and you used the cops to get me. You taught me how to manipulate cops for your power, and I learnt this tactic from you. You took my life, my dignity and my happiness from me, and I took your freedom from you". Sam apologized to me while crying. "Your sorry won't work for me, but you should save it for your inmates in prison," I advised him. "They are dangerous, according to what I've heard, so keep them well to ensure your survival", I further added. Later, I visited Will. As we prepared for our final attack, we both rejoiced getting our first revenge. In my head, I said, "Kevin, I'm coming for you."

CHAPTER 53

Now

ALEXANDER

I received a call from Jessica today. She is Leo's girlfriend. We don't talk often, so I was startled when she said she wanted to meet me, but maybe she wanted to chat to me about Leo. I therefore went to see her. I approached her when she was seated at the corner table and said, "Hi, Jessica". I asked her, "We hardly talk, so what is so important that you have asked me to come here?" After she instructed me to seat down. She replied, "I met Sam yesterday!" I urged her to be clear. "Sam told me everything about what you did to get him in there," she said. "Why did you harm him in this way? Leo and Kevin could have handled you if I had notified them about this, but I still need to hear from you", She responded. "From how many years are you friends with Sam?" "More than five years now," she answered. "What did he tell you about me when I moved here?", I questioned her. Sam informed me that your parents had passed away and that they had brought you here. "So, the thing is my parents never died", I informed her, "they use this story everywhere, and you are one of them". "What do you mean by they?" she questioned. I told her about Sam and Kevin. She questioned, "What about Leo?" I assured her of his innocence. The only person who has never mistreated me in any manner is him. She demanded to know everything, so I had no choice but to share it with her. I therefore told her everything that had happened from the beginning to the present. She expressed her surprise at what Sam and Kevin did, concluding, "I never expected them to do something of this sort". "They are good performers", I told her. She questioned, "Now what?" "Now, I'm after Kevin, but there's something else I want to talk to you about," I responded. After a little pause, I said, "Leave this place with Leo and travel to somewhere else. Trust me, Leo is not implicated in any of his crimes; rather, he will be here to help cover Kevin's misdeeds. He'll come forward to protect his brother, and I don't want Leo to assist a criminal. He has a good heart". Jessica replied, "I think you are right". "Can this be our little secret? I want this to be just between the two of us", I asked her. "I am on your side, don't worry", she replied.

---

CHAPTER 54

Now

LEO

Today Jessica came to see me. She said, "I want to discuss something important with you." I affirmed, "Go ahead". "I want us to relocate from here to somewhere else", she remarked. "I don't want to," I replied to her. "I am doing this for our future", she said. After a lengthy discussion, I turned to her and asked, "What about Aaron? Who will take care of him?" "Don't worry about Aaron, I met him today and we already talked about this," she replied. I was aware that you would be concerned about him. Anyway, Aaron and I had a long conversation during which he also encouraged me to relocate. I ran into Aaron later that day and questioned him, "Are you sure about this?" He responded, "Of course, yes. Look, everyone should go on in their lives. If an opportunity occurs, take it. Assume you are moving to Washington but decide not to reside there because of some issue. You are welcome to return back and look after your business. For this reason, I'm telling you to go. Be unconcerned about me". After talking to Aaron, I went to meet Kevin with Jessica and told him about my conversation with Jessica and Aaron. Kevin wanted me to stay in this place, but Jessica was able to convince him, and in the end, Kevin was also geared up. I and Jessica moved from Texas after a week.

CHAPTER 55

Now

ALEXANDER

As, Leo has moved, so I had to alter my plans. I spent a week coming up with a fresh plan, after which I visited Kevin and said "I need your signature on some official paperwork". He questioned, "What are these about?" I informed him, "These are some university forms that I need your signature on". Kevin instructed me to "keep them on the table, I will read , and then I will sign on them". I gave Kevin the documents and said, "Please do it now, I have to submit them today". He signed the paperwork after having read the first page. He turned the page and was ready to begin reading when he received a call. I gave him the go-ahead to sign it. After not reading any of the pages, he signed them all. I told him I was leaving at this time by giving him a signal. He was busy in talking so much that he didn't even read them, which turned out to be a gift in disguise. I was now one step away from destroying him.

CHAPTER 56

Now

KEVIN

My assistant called while I was attempting to read Aaron's paperwork. He said, "I have found the person who checked Sam's mental health in prison and I have set up a meeting with him today at 5pm," as I picked it up. I declined the call, got ready, and left for the doctor's appointment. It was nearly 5 o'clock when I arrived, so I walked straight to his room. I introduced myself and informed him that Sam is my brother. "Ah, I remember Sam from the prison," the doctor responded. Tell me what I can do to help you. I said to him, "I'm curious about his mental health. What was he genuinely experiencing?". The physician responded, "It was just a simple case of alcohol addiction". "He had hallucinations too", I told him. "I agree that his reports indicated an increase in dopamine, but that doesn't necessarily imply that he experienced hallucinations", he remarked. "Another thing I should mention is that he might have been drunk on purpose, it's my theory, but due to lack of sufficient evidence, I couldn't prove it" he added. After hearing him out, I went to the pub where he frequently goes to and asked the manager for surveillance clip. As I watched the recording, I realized that the man serving Sam was someone I knew who had also attended the party because his face seemed recognizable. I forced my memory on the drive home till I finally realized it was Will, Aaron's friend.

CHAPTER 57

Now

KEVIN

Will was kidnapped from his job, taken to my old garage, and strapped to a chair. I repeatedly pushed him to explain to me why he had given Sam alcohol. He didn't tell me, though. I tried to torture him, but he remained silent. I considered whether Aaron might possibly emotionally manipulate him into revealing this information. I asked Aaron to come here.

CHAPTER 58

Now

ALEXANDER

I went inside after opening the garage door. When I saw William unconscious, it was clear that he had been tortured. Kevin, I yelled, "What the hell did you do to him?" He continued, "I gave him a drug called benzytus, which will make him forget what happened and also make him high that will last up to six hours". After a minute of silence, I chuckled and asked, "Is it the same drug that you used to give me?" Kevin's face was visible to me, and he looked absolutely shocked. "I know what you did to me, I was informed of every action you took", I continued. I said to him, "You think William got captured, but he trapped you here. Have you ever given William a glance? Do you not feel any connection with him?" I queried. He asked,

---

"Who is he?" "William is the first orphan you adopted and sold to Mr. Smith", I added. "Why did you choose this life for me?" I questioned. "If you know everything, know this too, that this drug, benzytus, was new in the market. The dealer explained to me how to utilize it and how vital it was to my illicit business. I had not yet met you when I was in your town at the time, but I did see you at John's company shortly after our initial encounter. As a result, I decided to conduct an experiment with you. You were pretty naïve and easy, which is advantageous for our business. You were well-liked by the sex customers, and you were useful to me. But everything has a limit, and while I may control your life but I can't control your customers. They soon grew bored with you and lost interest in touching you. Sam used to tell me that he no longer saw you in compromising positions. Maybe because everyone loves boyish features and you were starting to get mature," he responded. I cut him off by stating, "Sam couldn't find me in compromising positions anymore because the medicines weren't having the desired effect; formerly, I would throw up after taking them. I also gave your customers some medications to get them unconscious. So, that I don't have to go through this suffering and that is how my value got decreased in your eyes". I asked, "So why didn't you leave me?". He replied laughingly, "Leave you? I wanted to sell you and also got a good buyer for you but Leo was so much attached with you. He stopped me from selling you. He was unaware of my business. He believed that I was some sort of psychopath who adopted orphans when I was lonely and sent them off to work somewhere else when my heart was at full. He attempted to show that I was mentally ill, but he failed. He always had faith in me because every time I sold an orphan, I would tell him that I had sent them out to find work. In this game, everyone is like a chess piece that I may use as I choose". "Who did you set on fire two years ago?", I questioned him. He responded with, "too many questions! Anyway, when we both left the construction site and after letting your friends go, I requested Sam to find a dead person of your age and set it on fire. It is impossible to identify the dead body because of this. We also had some of your accessories and your clothing. Sam then changed your clothes with the dead body and kept your accessories close to the body. Your DNA was discovered on the clothing during the forensic investigation, which led them to conclude that Alexander's body was the one they had discovered. That's how Alexander died for the whole world".

---

---

CHAPTER 59

Now

ALEXANDER

I told him, "Did you know that I gave your assistant the address of the doctor, and he promptly let you know when I wanted you to sign some paperwork. Your property, bank account, and business were all mentioned in the paperwork that you signed today. In which I sold your company to a rival and transferred the property in my name. You were preoccupied with the doctor and William during this period, so I had some time to complete all of this. In other words, you are helpless, powerless, and even ruined because I reported your illegal acts to the police and gave them our location as well. You kept me suffering, so now I won't let you escape either. When William reacted, he pulled out a gun, pointed it at William's head, and said, "If it's written in my fate that I have to go to jail, why not kill you both then". "I unloaded your gun this morning since I knew you would reach this point", I told him. "We're in a garage", he remarked while laughing. "Which one do you prefer?" he questioned as he walked over to a table and pulled out an axe and a hand saw. "Axe seems like a wise choice for you. It has a decent grip as well. First, I'll kill you, then William, and if you try to run from the garage, William will have to die first. I will be the death for both of you in either scenario". As he drew near, I looked about to see if I could grab anything to defend myself, but there was nothing that could stand up to an axe. He flung the axe at me, but I barely escaped it. He jumped on me, tried to suffocate me, and grabbed my neck. I shoved him aside. Once more, he flew towards me while holding a screwdriver and attempting to get his hand into my chest. "Your revenge will now remain incomplete forever", he told me before his final push, at which point the cops arrived and fired at him. While holding Kevin, they released William. "Aaron, you are brave. He might have gotten away from us since how late we were", the policeman stated as he approached me.

---

CHAPTER 60

Now

ALEXANDER

I then drove William home. When he regained consciousness, I told him what had occurred and reassured him that everything was resolved at this point. We have exacted our revenge. My fury has finally subsided. It appears like spring is approaching, and I am feeling like myself again. We found out after a few days that Sam had died in jail. He was accidentally killed after getting into a fight with some inmates. Later, Kevin was sentenced to life in jail. I went to visit him in jail. I questioned him, "How do you feel right now? Is this the same emotion you gifted me two years ago? The love of your gift has been returned today". I met Leo later on that day. "Aaron, trust me, I didn't know what Kevin was up to", he said. "I know, Leo. because of this, I requested Jessica take you somewhere else”, I replied. Today, I learned the hard way that you reap what you sow. Kevin will face the consequences of his actions and endure the harvest of what he has sown.

It's been two long years since they did me wrong, and I can't let it go. I want revenge! its like the china rules for shop: you break it, you pay for it.

Alexander was a happy and caring teen who didn't knew that something terrible was about to happen. An evil eye that will completely change everything. This curse would make him want to get back at the people who caused it. Alexander would carefully plan a trap to make sure his revenge was perfect.

"The story is so great, I read it to a dead man at his funeral and he came back to life"

Bilal

"The story proves the enigmatic reality of this World and life that revenge is best served cold"

Ustaad Faraz